

PUBLICATION REPRODUCTION REQUEST

RE 370A (New 3/89)

General Information

The Department of Real Estate (DRE) has a strong commitment to consumer protection, not only through its regulatory efforts, but also through ongoing public education. The DRE's education and research programs reflect the Department's current concerns relating to real estate consumers, and also to the constant change occurring in the real estate industry.

The research projects resulting from the education and research programs provide a continuous flow of current research information and ideas to the public and the industry.

To ensure the broad dissemination of information to the consumer, the DRE is currently allowing companies and individuals in the real estate field, under specific terms and conditions to reproduce a DRE research project for mass distribution.

To request permission to reproduce _____, read the following terms and conditions and complete the Reproduction Request section of this form.
